

Join FDLI, get involved, make a difference!

The Food and Drug Law Institute
1155 15th Street NW, Suite 800
Washington, DC 20005
www.fdpi.org

With over 10,000 members and affiliates, with unrivaled expertise in our varied disciplines, FDLI is at the forefront of virtually every new initiative that makes our industries more compliant, more secure and careers more rewarding. So take a moment and join us today!

YOUR CORPORATE CONNECTIONS

- FDLI does not advocate, but seeks creative solutions to benefit industry and government in the best interest of national health and the economy.
- FDLI and its membership, which includes regulatory officials, are concerned about the balance of safety, health and process speed and reasonable access to nutritious, safe and effective products for the public's health.
- Membership in FDLI provides support which effectively contributes to the constructive development of policy, law and regulatory processes for the public good and your industry.

YOUR PROFESSIONAL PROGRESS

- FDLI members enhance their professional credibility and visibility by belonging to the most highly respected organization specializing in food and drug law.

- Membership in FDLI provides the network and connections among professionals with similar concerns and interests.
- Our members stay current on issues and trends through FDLI educational programs like the Introduction to Law & Regulation workshops, the Colloquium series, Enforcement and Litigation conferences, the annual Advertising and Promotion conference, Hot Topic series, plus much more.

Want more information?
Visit www.fdpi.org or call us at 202-371-1420 for further membership information.